

The Life & Mission Choir at Potters Bar URC - Sunday 7th December 2025 - Light of Bethlehem

I think "Let there be light" to Bethlehem might have been as appropriate a title, as a very gifted narrator did indeed start with the creation story – at least after he'd put down the Christmas Shopping.

A commanding storyline with great musical and choral underpinning – and some nice pieces of comedy to accompany the Christmas story.

A big thank you to Paul Day, the choir and the technical support team for an inspiring and enjoyable afternoon.
